

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we are liturgically ending the Christmas season and will begin the ordinary time in the church's calendar. Even though holiday season is over one must continue to keep in his/her heart the spirit of Christmas; the spirit of love and joy. Let us continue to pray and ask that our lives may be filled with these gifts so that we can spread God's message throughout the nations.

Speaking of ordinary time, as we begin this new year in the church, the archdiocese would like to start by offering a talk given by Fr. Barron on January 28 at Holy Rosary in Edmonds. This is part of a series of talks offered by the archdiocese in keeping with the Year of Faith. Please see our posters in the narthex for more details.

Also this year, for all confirmation candidates, the archdiocese is implementing a new policy for all who wish to receive this sacrament. Candidates are now required to be actively engaged in their parish for at least a year before they can be confirmed. That means that all who seeking the sacrament must attend Mass for a year and participate in the confirmation program. I know this will entail some sacrifice on the candidates and their parents but with a little perseverance this hard work will bear fruit in the lives of our young brothers and sisters.

Finally I would like to extend my gratitude once more to all who helped make our Christmas holiday celebration possible. Thank your to all for sharing your time and talent in preparing our church and for making our Eucharistic celebration truly meaningful. God bless!
