

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

A couple of “thank you” are in order. First, as I mentioned over the weekend Masses, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all of you who have generously supported the Annual Catholic Appeal. We have met and surpassed our goal due to your dedication and support to this parish. Thank you so much! Secondly I would like to express my appreciation to all the members of the eastside Serra Club for hosting a Mass/dinner with Archbishop Sartain honoring the seminarians of our Archdiocese. We had an opportunity to meet the young men in our Archdiocese who have responded to the call of Christ. I encourage all of you to please include them in your prayers that they continue to persevere in their vocation. I also would like to thank the Staff of St. John Vianney for assisting in the preparation.

Next week, I, together with all the priests of the archdiocese, will be heading down to ocean shores for our annual priest retreat. It is a great opportunity for us to build “communio” among priests and to encourage and minister to each other. Please keep us all in your prayers that this gathering will be a grace filled time and that our hearts may be inflamed once more with the presence and presents of the Holy Spirit.

Finally, we still have spaces left in our Vacation Bible School. If you are interested and would like your child to be part of this enriching program, please call the parish office or see Ms. Laura Stanger.

God Bless, Fr. Ramon
