

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

It's been a busy week in the parish with the painting of the offices and changing of new carpets and for this reason I would like to apologize for any mess and inconvenience in the narthex as we are trying to improve our facilities to better serve and offer you a welcoming place when you come and visit us.

Last week I was not able to write my article because of the fourth of July weekend, the printer needed the article two days earlier than the normal deadline which did not give me enough time to write my article anyway I wanted to thank Laura and all the volunteers who helped in the last vacation bible school. Even though the weather did not cooperate it certainly did not dampen the spirits of our young brothers and sisters; they certainly had fun participating in all the different activities that were planned out for them. At the end of the of their 4 day camp, the kids were treated to some train and pony rides...it was really good to see the kids having fun and learning more about their faith. To all who have helped, a big thank you!

Finally, I would like to invite all, especially the chili aficionados, to prepare for our upcoming chili cook-off on August 4, the feast day of St. John Vianney. entry forms are available at the welcome table in the Narthex. I do hope that you could come and spend the day with us celebrating the patron saint's feast day and enjoying some really good chili. God bless!

Fr. Ramon

Questions for The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

- What can Paul mean by “I bear the marks of Jesus on my body”? How can all disciples reflect this?
- How can we, as Christ’s disciples today, mirror his example of self-denial in our own lives?
- How would you interpret “The Kingdom of God is at hand for you” for our own times?

Esperanza report 4/5 of the way finished. Goodwin group bringing in the finish 5th week. May Adult trek found 23 SJV folks pouring a roof in Morita day 1, then working on the first home in the brand new Rosarito community. Norma, the recipient, is in her mid 50's and cares for 3 siblings in their mid to late 60's 2 of whom are developmentally disabled. Adults wielded picks and shovels to dig the footings, made 800 concrete blocks, and actually moved a house! The college trekkers completed the block laying, rebar & wires, and poured the footing. Our high school group, using the adult perfect blocks, built the walls, created the frame cages, and on our final day poured a 56 bag roof. SJV built what Norma called "casa de amor". Words cannot adequately express the joy we all felt at closure. Thanks to ALL SJV folks who continue to support. "If God wants you to fly Alaska Airlines..." Our youth group had United group tickets as the fare was $140 less per ticket than Alaska (which we flew 22 yrs straight). Outbound, our plane was grounded which meant our San Fran flight was missed. United gave us each $30 in food vouchers, flew us on ALASKA flight 9 pm, and bought us 8 hotel rooms in San Diego so we weren't crossing the border at midnight. Flash to return flight on United, terrible crash in San Fran, again United puts us on Alaska flights leaving San Diego direct to SEATAC and we all came back early. United was super to us all the way around...but is there a message here?
