

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear parishioners,

What I am experiencing right now is a feeling of both happiness and joy. Happy because finally I have been installed as your pastor which gives me a sense of peace and stability in my ministry. Secondly I am happy too for the good turn out of people coming and participating in our family silent auction at the same time however I do feel great sadness for the victims and the devastation cause the super typhoon that hit my country as well as some of the south East Asian countries. A lot of people have lost everything that they have especially their loved ones; my heart and my prayers goes to them, may our good Lord console them during this difficult time, I enjoin you my dear friends to please include them in your prayers. As I reflect on this challenging situation of the people in the Philippines, it made me realize how fortunate and blessed we are that we should be grateful to God for all the blessings He has bestowed upon us. Let us not forget to acknowledge his benevolence upon us!

On another note, I would like to thank a couple of people, in particular, Bob and Dori Marbett, Judy Zaccaria, and Shirley Smyth, who prepared a wonderful reception for my installation last Sunday. It truly made the celebration very special and of course to all the people who came and wished me well, I thank you too! You are God's gift to me! May God continue to bless us all and may our blessed mother continue to inspire and lead us in having that personal encounter with her son, Jesus.

Fr. Ramon

Our preschool value of the month is "Thankfulness" We all have so much to be thankful for and the kids are learning to share with the less fortunate by bringing food items for "show and tell" to contribute to the St. Vincent DePaul food drive. We are already preparing the songs for our upcoming Christmas Concert in December. A happy Thanksgiving to our Supportive SJV family.
