

The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

Go Hawks! I think the majority of our parishioners have the same sentiment especially after winning the division championship. Now the Seahawks team is off to the Superbowl on the 2nd of next month. In keeping with the spirit, we are flying the 12th man flag upon the request of some dedicated fans from our parish. This week too, prior to that exciting game last Sunday, I was given a nice surprise by a member of our church. As I returned mid afternoon from lunch there was a package sitting on my desk and when I opened it I found a Seahawks jersey along with a nice donation to our church. I will not mention the name since I have not asked permission if I could do so...anyway I just want to say, thank you for the jersey but most importantly to the generous donation to our parish.

Speaking of football, I would like to invite you to a super bowl party here in our parish on the Feb. 2nd at 3:00 P.M. we will be serving beer and hotdogs for a small donation. There will also be all sorts of munchies and soda pop for the non beer drinkers. So come, watch and cheer on our team.

Next month the Knights of Columbus will be having their annual crab feed dinner on the 22nd. Representatives from the Knights will be selling tickets every weekend in the social hall, if interested please make sure that you purchase your tickets early as this is always a well attended event.

Finally I would once again like to remind you to please fill out your Stewardship Pledge Cards and return them to the parish—so we won't have to send you a reminder letter. We need your cooperation and participation in this campaign.

Thank you and God bless!

Fr. Ramon.
