

Palm Sunday

Dear Parishioners,

As mentioned last weekend, the parish was in a whirlwind in terms of all the activities that happened during the last couple of days. Needless to say these activities would not have happened without the generous support of our parishioners. First I would like to thank all the people responsible in installing the kneelers given the little time they have. Jim Boyce, Jim Labyak, Stan Madayag, Bob Marbett, Emmanuel Baluyot, Fred Cuazon, to name a few, and many more volunteers who gave their time and talent in seeing this project come to a realization and for all those whose names I had forgotten to include, thank you!

I also would like to thank the host families who welcomed our visiting performers in their homes. Our visitors had a very positive experience in their visit to our parish, words could not express their deep gratitude to all. I also would like to make mention and thank two of my staff, Jan and Margie, for really stepping up to the plate and assisting me in all of the preparations. Finally I would like to express my gratitude as well to all who came and help in our parish spring yard clean up, the church really look awesome! You guys Rock!

On another note, our parish schedule for Holy week is as follows: Monday to Wednesday will be regular daily Mass schedule. Holy Thursday Mass will be at 7 P.M. followed by Eucharistic adoration till midnight. Good Friday, film showing at noon: Son Of God followed by Rosary and Stations of the Cross. Then at 7 P.M. will be the veneration of the cross. Easter vigil Mass will begin at 9 P.M. hope you could all come and celebrate the Easter Triduum with us! God bless.
