

Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

Fall is in the air! And you know what that means...our Parish Auction is fast approaching. What a kick-off we had last weekend with Margaret Graham singing the theme and Dawn Smith promoting our Auction. Thank you to Margaret and Dave for coming up with a catchy theme song, it really got me thinking about the fast approaching auction and the holidays. If you are looking for ways to help with the auction, donating a new item is a great way of supporting our parish fund-raiser. So if you have any new items that you would like to donate, please bring them to the parish office as soon as you can and remember any donation that you give is tax deductible.

Speaking of holidays, if you are going to do some shopping, why not consider doing it during our auction. You not only get good items but you also get a chance to support our parish. If you are in the market for a flat screen T.V. an Ipad or a Bose sound wave...well you can all find that in our auction or if you want to splurge a little, we have a vacation package to a working farm in Nicaragua. The lucky bidder will be treated to a 5 bedroom and 5 bathroom house complete with swimming pool, maid service and chef for one week. The house sits on top of a hill with a picturesque view of the ocean. If you would like to see more please visit the website "fincas las nubes."

Finally I just want to let everybody know that, as we leave for the pilgrimage this Friday, you are all going to be with me and that I will remember your intentions as I celebrate Mass daily in the different shrines the pilgrims and I will be visiting. God bless you all!
