

3rd Sunday of Easter

Dear Parishioners,

We are in the third week of Easter and I cannot believe how fast time flies, it feels like we just celebrated the glorious resurrection of our Lord yesterday. Last Easter, I did not get a chance to thank the people who assisted in our liturgy both at the vigil and the Sunday Liturgies. First I would like to thank my staff who worked really hard in helping me prepare during the Easter Triduum, the volunteers, Darryl and Judy Zaccaria, Jim Labyak, Bob Marbett, Greg Leptich, Joanne Barker (hope I did not forget someone's name) who decorated our church during the entire Lenten season, the music ministry, led by Margaret, who really rehearsed hard and played very well, the RCIA team; Bruce and Keri Jaeger, Gayle Kasen, Steve and Shelly Bannon for leading our candidates into the light of Christ, Lynae Leptich and Linda Paribello for taking care of the reception after the vigil Mass and most of all to all the people who participated during our Masses and all the devotions during Lent...thank you to all! If I had forgotten to include others who volunteered, please know that I am truly grateful for everything that you do for our parish.

On another note, this weekend we will be having a visiting priest who will celebrate Mass on my behalf, Fr. Gordon Douglas. Fr. Gordon used to be the chaplain at Bishop Blanchet high school in Seattle. He has graciously agreed to celebrate Mass on my behalf while I am away on a pilgrimage. Please be assured that you will all be remembered as I celebrate Mass at all the holy shrines I and the other pilgrims will be visiting. Also happening this weekend is the mission talk Steve Angrisano is giving in our church. He will begin his mission talk on Sunday evening at 7 P.M. and will continue on till Tuesday. Please come and hear him speak about celebrating the liturgy with a joyful heart. Listeners will be given a chance to hear him speak as well as listen to him sing. So please come! God bless!

Fr. Ramon
