

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parishioners,

The signs are around us...the holidays are slowly, or should I say fast, approaching and things are getting busier by the day in the parish with funerals, auctions and home visits. But no matter what, I am quite happy for these are good signs that our parish is alive and growing.

Just last weekend we witnessed a good turnout for our Silent Family Auction with parishioners from all three Masses showing up and supporting the parish by purchasing most of the items we had for sale. The family auction was a success due to your generosity, whether you donated an item/s or purchased them. So my heartfelt gratitude to all of you. I also would like to thank all the volunteers who came and helped us prepare the social hall for that big event.

This weekend, November 14th, is/was our Auction Gala Night event,. Thank you to all who supported this wonderful parish event. Once again I would like to thank all of you for your continued support to our parish.

God bless!

You don't have to read music. You don't have to have a solo-type voice. You will learn how to sing your part at rehearsals on Wednesday nights. # Changes to Marriage Nullity Process

On September 8th Pope Francis issued the motu proprio, Mitis Iudex Dominus Iesus (the Gentle Judge, the Lord Jesus), announcing substantive changes to the process for obtaining a declaration of nullity (often called annulment). These changes will take effect on December 8, 2015, to coincide with the beginning of the Jubilee Year of Mercy.

What are the major changes?

- Under the new rules it will be easier for the Seattle Tribunal to accept a marriage case when the wedding took place outside the United States or a person's former spouse is currently living outside the United States.
- If the tribunal gives an affirmative decision and no one challenges it, both parties can enter a new marriage in the Catholic Church.
- Pope Francis encourages tribunals to make the marriage nullity process accessible to all.
- Some who petition for a declaration of nullity will qualify for the new shorter process introduced by the Holy Father if evidence for the invalidity is strong and not disputed. For cases that qualify and when both parties to the marriage consent to the shorter process, the Tribunal will do an investigation and the bishop will make a decision in a time shorter than the ordinary process.

What has not changed?

- The preliminary gathering of testimony and documents will occur in the parish with the assistance of a tribunal advocate for all types of cases.

Will the new laws benefit me?

If you have been told that the Seattle Tribunal cannot hear your case because it did not have jurisdiction, call the Tribunal to find out whether the Seattle Tribunal has jurisdiction under the new laws.

Are you divorced from a previous spouse and living in a new marriage not celebrated in the Catholic Church? Now is a good time to ask about petitioning for a declaration of nullity in order to have your new marriage recognized by the Catholic Church.

Most of the parishes in the Archdiocese of Seattle have women and men trained to assist you in presenting a petition to the Tribunal. If you would like to begin this process, please call the parish office and ask to have our Tribunal Advocate contact you.
