

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Dear Parishioners,

It's been quite a week for the staff and I with all the preparations and work needed for the auction but I have to say that in spite of all the labor involved it was well worth it. The gala auction, in my opinion, was a huge success. Parishioners and friends who came for the event were treated to an evening of fun and excitement. It was truly a spectacular evening. Of course, as in all great gatherings, none of this would be possible if not for the hard-working people behind the event. I will not be mentioning names lest I forget one of them instead I would like to acknowledge them by committees. The auction committee who did a great job in organizing the event, developing the concept and distribution of invitations. Then we have the different sub-committees. The decoration committee who was responsible for transforming our social hall to a five-star banquet hall from the ceiling to the tables...amazing. To the procurement committee for ensuring that we have good quality items to offer to our bidders, our computer team who kept track of all the items donated and bought during the auction. The wait staff, for their attentive service to our guests during the dinner. The Kitchen crew who helped in washing the dishes, Our beverage committee who helped provide festive libations to our gathering. I hope I am not forgetting anyone...I would like to mention to individuals who really helped a lot during the entire auction...first is Laura Stanger and school kids who helped pack the numerous items our guest bought, it really made everything flow smoothly and finally Margie Berard who without her this auction would not have been possible. Thank you to all! Once again you all out did yourselves!

On another note, this Thursday is Thanksgiving day and our Mass schedule is at 9 A.M. kindly bring some food items with you for St. Vincent de Paul. And finally, save the date, December 3 at 7:00 pm is our parish penance service. There will be 5 priests coming over to assist me in hearing confessions.

God Bless!
