The world and the culture in which we live present many obstacles and hindrances to the living out of our Catholic Faith, especially perhaps for us men. You are invited to join hundreds of your brother Catholics for the 2016 Catholic Men's Conference, Iron Sharpens Iron, as together we reflect upon and strive to enkindle the virtue of manliness in the year of Mercy that Pope Francis has declared. We had another successful Christmas Basket Program 2015. We ended up helping 64 families. We touched a lot of people's lives and made their holiday. But if it wasn't for SJV's parish community, it couldn't happen. SVDP thanks each and everyone who helped with the food and gifts. The problem is now our shed is very sparse with our non-perishables, and we need your help. If you can help us, here are some of the items we need: canned vegs, Mac n cheese, chili, peanut butter & jelly, pasta & spaghetti sauce, top ramen, canned soups, Mayonnaise, cooking oil, canned fruit, pancake mixes & syrup, and finally tuna fish."

Your

Helpful Key to

Open Up the Gospels

With Deacon Gene Vanderzanden

Author of Mark's Passion

Tuesday evening, February 23

7:00—8:30 pm, in Room 12

Gene on the Sea of Galilee

It takes many keys to fully open up the gospels. And with each new key we gain more and more understanding.

It helps to know what New Testament scholars are saying about the challenging times in which the gospels were written. But the insightful historical background has not yet been well communicated to us in the pews.

Deacon Gene, who has a MDiv degree from Seattle University, likes to open up the latest knowledge. He has developed simple, pictorial ways of presenting it for us.

Come to this informative, down-to-earth, illustrated presentation.
It will help you better grasp the divine inspiration and human passion within the gospels.
